

Balanced Literacy In The Classroom

Balanced literacy is the vehicle that we use in AISD to deliver the Language Arts TEKS. The balance in balanced literacy refers to reading and writing done “to,” “with,” and “by” children.

This balance speaks to the amount of teacher control and student independence. Some components of balanced literacy require a higher level of teacher demonstration while other components require more student time and ownership.

