Mission Statement

At Jerry Joslin, we believe that everyone can learn. The intrinsic motivation and positive attitudes occur when students engage in connected and meaningful learning experiences. We work together with our community to ensure a equitable and safe learning environment where everyone will demonstrate personal growth and achieve academic success through a balanced educational program that incorporates best practices in instruction.

Vision

All students will actualize their potential academically, develop appropriate sociocultural competence, and have the opportunities to become bilingual (or trilingual) through our 2-way Dual Language (DL) pathways in Spanish and/or Mandarin.
