

Naming Committee Meeting

Meeting Minutes
September 10, 2018

Welcome, Call to Order

- Principal Holiday advised of meeting process
- All present members and guests introduced

Citizen Communications

- Morgan Goldbarth, former Fulmore teacher, speaks in support of renaming Fulmore Sara Lively Middle School
- Lynn Lively, daughter of Sara Lively, speaks in support of renaming Fulmore Sara Lively Middle School
- Travis, former student of Ms. Lively, speaks in support of renaming Fulmore Sara Lively Middle School
- Derrick Castillo, former student of Ms. Lively, speaks in support of renaming Fulmore Sara Lively Middle School
- Michael, former student of Ms. Lively, speaks in support of renaming Fulmore Sara Lively Middle School
- Information shared on Facebook page of those in support, “Sara Lively Middle School Campaign”

Top Three Names for School Name Change

- Top three names due to district by September 17
- School Naming Task Force Criteria print out shared
- Discussion of online poll shared with Fulmore newsletter; 2 weeks 48 responses-South Congress Middle School had most votes at 18
- Shared top names from previous campus meeting where significant citizen communication on naming:
 - John Trevino, Abel and Gloria Ruiz, Sara Lively, John N Johnson, South Congress (SoCo) Middle School, and Moonlight Towers
 - Each of these had vocal supporters and detailed historical support shared
- Discussion of putting these names forward with detail for students to vote
- Background on each will be presented in SEL this week and then students will vote; top three from student voting will be put forward to district with context provided
- Decided a brief meeting of CAC to review vote results prior to submission, Thursday September 13 at 4:00 PM

Adjournment

Meeting was adjourned at by Principal Holiday shortly after 5:00 PM.