

Bertha Casey Elementary

Research shows that active parental engagement with schools leads to significant benefits for students, including higher grades, improved attendance, and increased graduation rates. This collaboration enhances academic performance and supports students' intellectual, social, emotional, and physical growth. To strengthen this partnership, it's crucial for parents, teachers, and students to work together. We invite you to affirm our shared commitment to student success by signing and returning this agreement.

Parent Agreement

As a parent(s), I will help my child meet his/her responsibilities. I will be responsible for:

- Sending my child to school on time each and every day prepared and ready to learn
- Encouraging my child to read daily (or read to my child daily) for at least 20 min.
- Establishing a time for homework and reviewing it regularly
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions related to my child's education
- Supporting the school and the teacher in its effort to maintain proper discipline
- Communicating with my child's teacher and reviewing teacher and school communication to stay informed
- Reviewing my child's report card
- Attending parent/teacher conferences
