

Anderson High School

Postsecondary Enrollment

Graduating Class of 2013

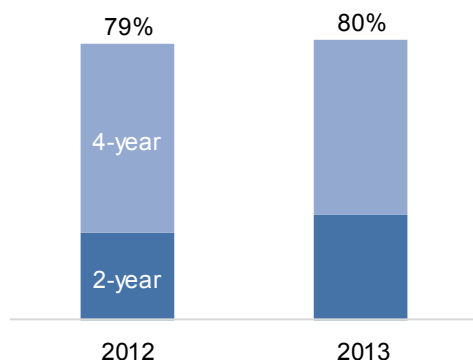

DRE Publication #14.36 RB

May 2015

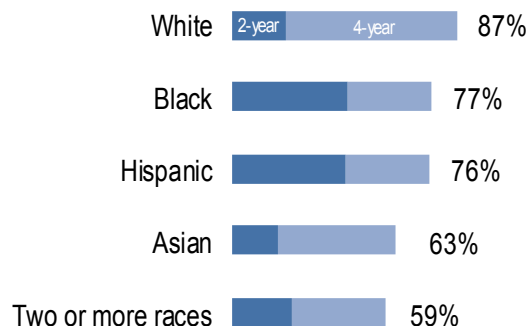

Afi Y. Wiggins, Ph.D.

423 seniors graduated from Anderson High School in 2013.

Eighty percent of Class of 2013 graduates enrolled in college a year after graduation.

A higher percentage of White graduates enrolled in postsecondary institutions than did their peers of other races.

339

graduates enrolled in college the first year after graduation.

306

graduates were direct-to-college enrollees.

90% of graduates who completed the FAFSA enrolled in college.

61% of economically disadvantaged graduates enrolled in college.

14% of limited English proficient graduates enrolled in college.

84%

of Class of 2012 graduates who enrolled in college after high school enrolled for a second year (persisted).

Understanding the Data

This summary presents postsecondary enrollment rates for AISD's Anderson High School Class of 2013. Direct-to-college is defined as students who enroll the Fall immediately following their high school graduation date. FAFSA is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. For more information, about the district's postsecondary enrollment outcomes, refer to district postsecondary enrollment reports on the Austin Independent School District Department of Research and Evaluation publications website, <http://www.austinisd.org/dre/college-career-life>. Source: National Student Clearinghouse, 2014.

Top 10 Institutions of Postsecondary Enrollment

Austin Community College
University of Texas: Austin
Texas A&M University
Texas State University: San Marcos
University of Texas: San Antonio
Texas Tech University
St. Edwards University
Baylor University
Texas A&M University: Corpus Christi
University of Arkansas: Fayetteville